Comments

- (1) The receiving stations indicate that all trains, except the one to Rathenow, carried units of the Second Gds Heer Army. It is believed that these units returned from field exercises which were held in the area north of Neuruppin and probably involved components of the 1st Heer Div and the 12th Gds Tank Div, and from the Gloewen-Havelberg area, where components of these two divisions practiced with headquarters units of the Second Gds Heer Army during the first half of October. It is believed that the train to Rathenow carried a unit of the Fourth Gds Heer Army, which was to participate in the fall maneuvers in the Rathenow-Stendal area.

25X1 (2)

The list of troop trains supplements numerous previous reports on the fall maneuvers in the Letzling Heide-Rathenow-Burg area. All these reports tend to indicate that two maneuvers were conducted. The first maneuver was held in the Wolmirstedt-Tangerhütte-Burg area and involved components of all four divisions, and army and corps headquarters troops of the Third Shock Army, and components of the IV Arty Corps. The second maneuver was held in the Rathenow-Stendal-Jerichow area and involved other units of the Third Shock Army, some of which arrived by rail from Letzling Heath, units of the Fourth Gds Mecz Army, and components of the IV Arty Corps. Since they started simultaneously about 19 October, the two maneuvers may have been coordinated under a command post of the Hq GOFG in the Tangerhuetten area. The exact date of the completion of the maneuvers could not be determined, since the subsequent entraining period apparently took about one week. There have been no indications that these maneuvers were affiliated with the fall maneuvers of the Eighth Gds Army in the Dessau-Zerbst area, which started at the same time. Such a connection appears unlikely, since the maneuver of the Eighth Gds Army in the Dessau-Zerbst area probably extended southward across the Elbe River as far as the Bitterfeld-Delitzsch area. However, in addition to the troops who, according to the present report, arrived in the Rathenow-Stendal-Jerichow maneuver area and were unloaded in Rathenow and Premnitz and the troops returning from this area, components of the 10th Gds Tank Div started leaving Letzling Heath and the Altengrabow range for Satzkorn by rail about 22 October. Eight trains carrying components of this division were reported by source of the present report. Confirming information from Maldensleben is available.

(3) These observations tally with statements by the same source in paragraph 2 of the present report. Identical trains are believed to be the following:

Train in Paragraph 3	Train in Paragraph 2	Unit on the Train
Train on 20 October	Train	Undetermined	25X1
1st train on 21 October	Train	Of the 10th Gds Tank Div
2d train on 21 October	Train	Of the 10th Gds Tank Div
3d train on 21 October	Train	Of the 6th Arty Div
4th train on 21 October	Train	Of the 6th Arty Div
5th train on 21 October	Train	Of the 3d (?) Gds AT Arty Brig
Train on 23 October	Train	Engineer component of the Fourth Gds Mecz Army
Train on 25 October	Train	Of the 25th Tank Div
Train on 26 October	Train	Artillery component of the Fourth Gds Mecz Army

The two troop trains observed in Buschow and Kennhausen on 22 October carried components of the 25th Tank Div, including elements of the 162d Tank Regt, which thus is confirmed in Cranienburg until 22 October.

- (4) Vehicles of the GOFG. 25X1
- (5) The train carried a component of the 25th Tank Div.

- (6) The two troop trains of 29 October belong to the series of trains which, beginning 25 October, carried units of the 6th Gds Tank Div to Wittenberg from the Werder-Markendorf troop training grounds. Nine of these trains were observed prior to 29 October. See [redacted] The report fails to indicate whether army or air force units were loaded on the three trains on 30 and 31 October. Since no information indicating the movement of army units from Stendal to Jueterbog is available, it seems possible that the unidentified ground attack regiment, which had been transferred to Stendal-Borstel airfield from Schoenwalde in early October 1951, was stationed there only temporarily and moved to Jueterbog by the end of October. The train on 1 November probably carried the same unit of the 1st Mezz Div to its home station, as moved to Jueterbog on the train [redacted] [redacted]
